

Are you a Veteran thinking about purchasing your first or new home? No ideas on where to start or what you need before even starting this great yet mystifying process? Join us for a free information seminar with people dedicated to having your best housing security at heart. The Veterans Home Buying Collaborative has collected agents from local lenders, realtors and other housing non-profits to give you the straight scoop, without the sales pressure!

When: Thursday August 25th, 2016 from 6 p.m.-8p.m.

Where : 307 Cumberland Ave. Portland, ME 04101

Topics to be covered:

1. Are you mentally, financially and emotionally prepared?
2. What is a credit score and how does it effect your ability to finance a home?
3. What is a COE?
4. What do you NEED as opposed to what do you WANT?
5. What is a VA Home Loan Guaranty?

Free child care provided by: Portland Nannies

Please RSVP by Aug. 23rd.

RSVP: Christopher D. Kotch
